Kristin Rebecca

"Her unamplified voice and the acoustic plucking of the harp filled the sanctuary with heavenly strains" ~Beans Blog 2013

About Kristin:

Kristin is a captivating performer who combines her powerful, angelic voice, unique guitar rhythms and rare harp ability into a show unlike any other. No two of her songs sound alike; they cover life and all its emotions, from flirtation on the dance floor to standing up for what you believe to striving for dreams. Kristin doesn't use the harp as a gimmick; she showcases the versatility of the instrument. She is an award-winning musician and actively touring artist.

Notable Past Venues:

Stoltz Listening Room (Easton, MD)
The French Embassy (Washington DC)
Focus Music (Alexandria, VA)
The Folk Project's Misntrel Stage (Morristown, NJ)
Caffe Vivaldi (New York, New York)
Yellow Barn (Ann Arbor, MI)
Caffe 312 part of Music on Maxwell (Greenwood, SC)
Acoustic Coffee House (Johnson City, TN)
Ginkgo Coffeehouse (St.Paul, MN)
Maryland Renaissance Festival (Annapolis, MD)

Music Awards:

// Where Fairies Dwell, nominated for 2015 Wammie Award for Best Tradition Folk Recording.
// Washington Area Folk Harp Society, 2011 Scholarship.
// Washington Area Folk Harp Society, 2008 Scholarship.
// Harpist of the Day, presented by Clan Currie, 2005 Richmond Highland Games and Celtic Festival.
// First place in her age category at both the 2004 and the 2005 Richmond Highland Games and Celtic Festival.
// Received awards in Spring 2006 at the Southern Maryland Celtic Festival, MTAB Musicale, and Trinity College Examination.

Discography:

Solo Albums:
Where Fairies Dwell (2014)
Fringe (2011)

Guest Artist:
A Sound of Thunder : Metal Renaissance (2011)
James Lee Carr: Into the Water (2014)

Contact:

www.kristinrebecca.com info@kristinrebecca.com 410-381-2639

PO Box 421 Simpsonville, MD 21150